Question	Answer
Is there any opportunities to teach English as a secondary language at this or other higher education institutions in Italy?	Please consult the Fulbright U.S. Student Program: fulbrightonline.org
Does Fulbright assist with the passport and/or visa application process?	Thank you for your inquiry! The country's embassy and/or commission will help with the visa process.
Barbara, could you please send us the working link for the Fondazione con il Sud?	www.universitaly.it/index.php/ and https://cercauniversita.cineca.it/
Professor Lambert-Pennington's work is so inspiring! How can we get in touch with her?	Feel free to email me - almbtrpn@memphis.edu
Are these the only opportunities in Italy? If I were interested in a different university in the North, would there be a way from the university to initiate a Fulbright opportunity there?	Thank you for your inquiry! Only some opportunities were highlighted in the webinar today. To see all the opportunities we have for Italy, please see our website: https://fulbrightscholars.org/awards/search?query=&country%5B%5D=4522&field_award_multi_country=All&field_award_degree_reqs=All&field_invitation_req=All&field_do_you_offer_additional_de=All
Given that the CON IL SUD program is relatively new, would there be opportunities to apply for a Fall 2023 or Spring/Summer 2024 position? I am a Professor of Psychology and recently was granted a full-year sabbatical for the academic year 2023-24. I know this would be an irregular application, but if any universities still have need or interest in a late application, I would be honored to explore this opportunity.	That competition is now closed. We are currently accepting applications for the academic year 2024-25.
do you need to be able to speak Italian or will you need to request for an interpreter in your grant?	Thank you for your inquiry! Language requirements vary by award. Please check the award requirements in the award that you're interested in to see if language proficiency is needed.
If my spouse has a Ph.D. and J.D. and practices international law (and teaches it), and has been a co-Fulbrighter, would it be good to apply jointly or let them know about him for possible engagement?	Thank you for your inquiry. All applicants must apply independently to the award. However, we have had instances where couples have received awards at the same time!
How competitive are Fulbright awards in comparison to other countries?	Thank you for your inquiry! Due to policy, we cannot give competitiveness information.

I am interested in the Teaching Research program at the University of Bologna, and as well in the Con il Sud Founfation program. As a french/us philosopher -and also a classical professional musician- I am currently full professor of Humanities. My project, theoretically and historically connected with a book project), is centered on dimensions of artistic action (specially musical of culture) for cultural communication. I am interested in knowing if this thematic, which implies also an investigation in Bologna and Rome Archives, is relevant for these Programs. Thank you	Thank you for your inquiry! Please email EuropeEurasia@iie.org so they can help you with this question.
Who is the person to write for follow up to the award at Calabria in Italian-American Studies?	Please email EuropeEurasia@iie.org.
Thank you for this information! Is airfare included as part of the Fulbright award?	That information will be in the Award Benefits tab of the award under "Estimated Travel and Relocation Allowance for Grantee."
Are we allowed to apply to more than one Fulbright award at a time?	You can only apply to one Fulbright award per competition cycle.
is EuropeEurasia@iie.org the best way to reach you?	Yes!
Can the Fulbright program support a research collaboration between a US faculty and a company in Italy?	Please email EuropeEurasia@iie.org so they can help.
