Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program: The Fulbright Experience for Native American Scholars and Scholars of Indigenous Studies

Dr. Julie Taylor
Institute of International Education

July 12, 2023

The Fulbright U.S. Student Program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by the Institute of International Education.

Mission

- In partnership with 135 countries worldwide, Fulbright offers passionate and accomplished faculty, artists, and other professionals from all backgrounds an unparalleled opportunity to teach or conduct research abroad.
- Our mission is to foster mutual understanding between nations, advance knowledge across communities, and improve lives around the world.

Four Fulbright Distinctions

1. Awarding over 800 fellowships a year, Fulbright is the largest fellowship program for U.S. scholars
2. Fulbright is a public diplomacy program: Established by Congress in 1946 and sponsored by the U.S. Department of State
3. Seeks applicants who foster engagement, forge lasting connections, and strive for long-term impact

4. Fulbright is Elite, but not Elitist

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the United States Department of State strives to embed diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA) in all aspects of its work.

Public diplomacy is most effective when people of diverse backgrounds and perspectives participate in people-to-people exchanges and programs to promote mutual understanding. The Bureau incorporates DEIA best practices throughout its exchanges and programs, grants, community partnerships, and in its workforce and workplace.

ECA is committed to addressing barriers based on race, ethnicity, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, religion, geographic location, education, income, socio-economic status, and other diversity dimensions, that may hinder inclusion in the organization. The Bureau's commitment to DEIA strengthens U.S. foreign policy and is vital to building trust and partnerships here at home and around the world.
